

Student-Athlete Recruiting Questionnaire

	Needed Items	Write Here for Reference or Use a Separate Piece of Paper	Notes
About Me & My Family	First Name
	Middle Name
	Last Name
	Your Cell Number		New Rules: Coaches can now text.
	Your email address		If you do not have an email, you need one immediately. Use one of the free services. You will need an email to write to college coaches. Use your name and not a crazy name. John.Doe@gmail.com or JDoe@gmail.com--you want coaches knowing your name, not your nickname.
	Date of Birth in MM/DD/YYYY
	City/State of Birth
	Your graduation month, year MM/YYYY
	Parent 1 Name
	Parent 1 Address
	Parent 1 Cell
	Parent 1 Occupation
	Parent 1 College
	Living With? Y/N
	Parent 2 Name
	Parent 2 Address
	Parent 2 Cell
	Parent 2 Occupation
	Parent 2 College
	Living With? Y/N
	Graduation Year
	Date of Birth
	Email Address
	Home Phone
	Cell Phone
If living with a guardian, you will need all the parent information noted above for your guardian.
Snapchat			Social media: College coaches will be watching your social networks. Be advised that information you put on social media reflects on you and the school you may be attending. Foul language, nudity, fighting, negative comments will reflect on you as a person. Again, as with email, coaches need to know your name, not a funny, goofy twitter handle or Instagram name. Remember: You are building your brand. Your brand is YOU!
Skype
Facebook
Twitter
Instagram

School/Coach Contact Information	School Name		Know who your head coach is. Know his full name, too, not just his last name. Make sure to have the school address, phone number and fax.
	School Address
	School City
	School State & Zip
	School Phone
	School Fax
	Coach Name
	Coach Phone Contact
	Coach Email Address		Please know your counselor. If you are a sophomore and have not sat down with your counselor, you should do so before your junior year. Juniors and Seniors should know their counselors!
	Counselor's First Name
	Counselor's Last Name
	Counselor's Phone
	Counselor's Email
	Counselor's Fax		Have at least one teacher who is willing to speak about your character, leadership, or grades. Two teacher references are even better.
	Teacher Reference/Name & Email:

Student-Athlete Recruiting Questionnaire

Grades/Transcript Information	GPA		Never exaggerate on any information that you give to colleges. They will always check! You can get all of this information on the Campus Portal page or from your counselor. This information is on your official or unofficial transcript. Go to counselor's office for a copy--know where you stand!
	NSHE Core GPA
	Weighted GPA
	Are you taking honors or AP classes? Y/N (List)
	Class Rank ___ out of ___
	PSAT Score
	SAT Reading
	SAT Math
	SAT Composite
	ACT Sum Score
ACT Composite
Intended Major		It's okay if you don't know. You could list 'undecided' but list an area of interest: Science, Humanities, Liberal Arts, Engineering, Sports Medicine, etc.

Eligibility Center/Football Stats	Have you joined the NCAA Eligibility Center? Y/N		www.eligibilitycenter.org
	NCAA Eligibility ID		Cost: $80; Should be completed in your JR/SR year
	Have you joined the NAIA Eligibility Center? Y/N		www.playnaia.org/eligibility-center
	NAIA Eligibility ID		Cost: $80; Should be completed in your JR/SR year
	Height		Again, do not exaggerate. Be truthful and honest on all of your applications.
	Weight
	Jersey #
	HUDL Link/Highlights
	40 Yard
	Bench Max
	100M
	Squat Max
	Position: Offense
	Position: Defense
	Position: Special Teams
	Football Camps Attended
	Combines Attended
List any other sports you play.
List any injuries you may have.
Miscellaneous player notes:		Keep notes on your successes and your challenges...be able to write and talk about them.

Personal References and Questions	List the 2 most influential people in your life and why they are the most influential.	1 2	Try not to say "friends" here. Use your adult role models: coaches, teachers, pastors, community leaders.
	What Is your connection to the college/university you would like to attend?		Have about 50 words planned for this.
	What are your strengths?		Know your strengths, but be humble. Always look like you are working harder & are focused on the future.
	What are your weaknesses?		Turn your weaknesses into a positive--show that you are working on your perceived weaknesses.
	Do you volunteer? If so, where +hours/week.
	Do you work/have a job?
	What leadership roles do you have?
	List clubs or organizations you are in at school or in the community.
	2-3 Personal References. Know their name, address, phone number, email, and why you listed them as a personal character reference.		Be sure to contact ALL references and discuss the fact that you are using them on college recruiting applications.
	List 5 Colleges you would attend if given a choice.		Universities/colleges want to see that you have been researching your future choices.
Who is your favorite person in history and why?		This question shows depth about you.
Be prepared to talk about yourself, your interests, your short-term and long-term goals. Have some specific goals for 1 and 5 years.		SMART goals: Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Results-Focused, Time-Bound; Example: By December 1 of my junior year, I would like to have been in contact with 3 colleges, have taken my ACT once, and have played a full season of varsity. I would also like to plan 2 college visits by March of my junior year.	